

The Do Not Call law of New Jersey is a good law. It protects the rights of consumers. Please do not try to weaken or eliminate this law. This would only serve to benefit business at the expense of the people. Why are these businesses so eager to reach consumers that they already know have no intention of buying from them, anyway?